

The right to broadcast local traffic and weather should be protected by the First Amendment. If local providers can not provide a channel that constantly gives you updates minute by minute then XM Radio should.